Effecting Managing Remotely

Duration: 1 day

Whose is this for?

This is aimed at managers who have (or are) remote workers or agile workers (flex between remote and office.

Content:

- Decide how you will stay visible and keep everyone in mind (not just who is in today) and using technology to help
- Different strokes for different folks – how we are different and finding out what people need to feel included and motivated
- Creating team culture at a distance
- How to encourage everyone to 'carry culture' and nurture team relationships
- Using different types of communication to be most effective

Delivery:

We can deliver this course either on a 1:1 or Group basis with a choice of virtual or face to face delivery (we can even tailor the content to suit your culture, values, branding etc)
